General Underwriting

Custom Plans

Sutter Health Plan offers custom plans to large employer groups with 1,000 or more eligible employees when there is an opportunity to enroll at least 500 members in a Sutter Health Plus medical plan. Requires prior approval, please contact your Sutter Health Plus Account Executive or Account Manager for more information.

Participation

Sole Carrier

- When Sutter Health Plan is the sole carrier, 100% of all eligible employees must enroll when the employer contributes 100% of the premium, less valid waivers.
- If an employer contributes less than 100% of the premium, a minimum of 50% of all eligible employees must enroll, less valid waivers.

Slice Carrier

- A minimum of 10 eligible employees must enroll in a Sutter Health Plan medical plan by renewal with no more than two additional carriers offered by the employer.

Sutter Health Plan will write a plan alongside a self-funded plan if there is no adverse selection to the Sutter Health Plan medical plan and if all required claims experience documents are received and approved by Sutter Health Plus Underwriting.

Benefit Plan Rules

Sutter Health Plan will allow up to four of its plans for large groups.

Contribution

The minimum contribution is 50 percent of the employees' monthly premium for the lowest-cost medical plan offered by the employer.

* Not available with HDHPs. The employer should seek legal counsel for guidance on the IRS requirements for offering ancillary products and riders alongside HDHPs.

Optional Benefits Available

- Acupuncture*
- Chiropractic*
- Vision
- Infertility
- Orthotics and Special Footwear

Live, Work or Reside Rule

All eligible employees must live, physically work or reside within the Sutter Health Plan licensed service area to enroll. Sutter Health Plan defines "live" as where an employee is staying, but may not be the employee's primary residence; and defines "reside" as an employee's primary residence.

Eligibility

Employer Eligibility

To qualify as a large group, an employer must meet the definition outlined under Section 414 of the Internal Revenue Service (IRS) code. This includes meeting the following:

- An employer with 101 or more full-time equivalent employees on at least 50 percent of its working days during the preceding calendar quarter or calendar year.
- The employer must be a corporation, LLC, partnership or proprietorship. The employer may also be a governmental subdivision, education organization, a nonprofit organization, or religious institution.
- Trusts, Professional Employer Organizations, and multiple employer trusts are considered for coverage based on a review of all required legal documents including bylaws (as required by Underwriting). Requires Legal, Compliance, VP of Sales and CFO approval before quoting. The employer may begin the process at least six months before the effective date.
- The employer was not formed primarily to obtain healthcare coverage and has a permanent business.
- The employer must provide workers' compensation coverage when required by law.

Affiliated Employer

If an affiliated employer wants to breakaway from the single affiliated contract, the following applies:

- The remaining single affiliated employer and the breakaway employer must continue to meet all eligibility requirements.
- The remaining single affiliated employer must have at least one employer headquarters and one employee in the licensed service area.

Employer Non-Affiliated Breakaway

- If an employer is enrolled independently or in a Trust, JPA or a MEWA, they must provide notice to their broker and Underwriting that they have an intent to breakaway from their current contract.
- The employer must execute a new Sutter Health Plan contract, offering the same rates and benefits for a 12-month period.

Common Ownership

Companies with common ownership may be considered a single group if the companies fall under the Health Insurance Portability and Accountability Act (HIPAA) definition, in which case the group will be rated with the combined census, and participation status will be determined based on the combined population. The employers must submit documentation showing affiliation, such as one of the following:

- Statement from a certified public accountant or attorney
- Recently filed IRS Form 1120S (IRS Schedule O)
- Recently filed IRS Form 8869

Sutter Health Plan can set up subaccounts for all affiliated employers for accounting purposes.

Employee Eligibility

Full-time Employees

- Permanent employees actively engaged in employment with an average 30-hour workweek for at least 50 percent of the weeks in the previous calendar quarter.

- Must receive monetary compensation from their employer, subject to Form W-2 withholdings.
- Must meet any statutorily authorized applicable waiting period requirements.

Part-time Employees

- The employee must work at least 16 hours but no more than 29 hours per week and:
 - Meet the definition of an eligible employee except for the number of hours worked and has a bona fide employer-employee relationship.
 - The employer offers employee health coverage under a health benefit plan, and all similarly situated individuals are offered coverage under a medical plan.

Officers/Stockholder/Trustees/Board Members/Elected Officials

- Meet the definition of an eligible employee and must:
 - Draw wages, dividends, or other distributions from the company regularly.
 - Not derive substantial earned income from any other employer.
 - Not be eligible for other employer-sponsored coverage as a subscriber.

Commissioned Employees

- Must receive monetary compensation from their employer, subject to Form W-2 withholdings.

Seasonal Employees

- Covered if the employer is required to treat them as a covered employee. Must apply either a look-back measurement method or a monthly measurement method to determine whether a seasonal employee is full time.

Carve-out Populations

- Sutter Health Plan will allow carve-out of eligible employee populations when the other eligible employee population is covered under another health plan contract.

- An employer with employees in or out of California.
 - Coverage may be offered to California-eligible employees who live, work or reside in the Sutter Health Plan licensed service area.

Dependent Eligibility

- An employee's spouse or domestic partner of the same or opposite sex, over age 18 is eligible pursuant to state law. It is the employer's responsibility to validate eligibility. Proof of marriage or domestic partnership is not required.
- Employees over age 65 and enrolled in Medicare can select coverage for a spouse under age 65. The spouse premium is equivalent to the employee rate.
- Children through the end of the month in which they turn age 26, including adopted, step, or recognized natural child or any child for whom the employee has assumed a parent-child relationship, as certified by the employee at the time of enrollment of the child, and annually thereafter up to age 26.
- Disabled dependent children 26 years of age or older who are incapable of self-support due to a physically or mentally disabling injury, illness or condition which existed prior to age 26 who receive 50 percent or more of their support and maintenance from the employee or employee's spouse or domestic partner may qualify for eligibility. Proof of incapacity and dependency must be submitted within 60 days of request.
- Eligible employees and dependents who work for the same employer may enroll separately or together. Members will not receive more than 100 percent coverage from all insurers or healthcare service plans combined.

Early Retirees under 65

- If the employer is offering coverage for eligible early retirees and their dependents under age 65, Sutter Health Plan can offer coverage if the same plans are offered to both the active and retiree populations residing within the Sutter Health Plan licensed service area.
- Eligible retirees under the age of 65 must live or reside within the Sutter Health Plan licensed service area.

Employees 65 or Older

- An employee age 65 or older who meets the definition of an eligible employee is eligible to enroll in a Sutter Health Plan medical plan, as long as the employee meets all other eligibility requirements.
- Eligible dependents of employees age 65 or older will be offered the same dependent rate as an active employee dependent.
- Eligible dependents of employees age 65 or older can enroll in a Sutter Health Plan medical plan offered by the employer without enrolling the eligible employee. The first dependent enrolled must pay the active employee rate or the family rate based on the dependent tier.
- Sutter Health Plan is not licensed to sell Medicare Advantage plans.

Ineligible Employees

The following categories of employees are considered ineligible for coverage with Sutter Health Plan unless they meet the employee eligibility requirements:

- A part-time employee, working fewer than the designated number of hours, as defined in the eligible employee guideline previously referenced.

- A temporary (not permanent) employee provided by a temporary agency or independent/commissioned contractor who receives a 1099 IRS filing.
- An employee who has not worked for six months due to illness or injury or for 12 weeks due to a leave of absence or temporary layoff, even if they are covered by long-term disability coverage or worker's compensation coverage.
- An employee who erroneously or fraudulently enrolled in coverage.

- A foreign employee covered by their country's government health plan residing outside the U.S.
- Private household employee.
- Any class which is prohibited by the Affordable Care Act (ACA) rules regarding highly compensated employees. The employer is responsible for enforcement.
- Any individual who does not meet or ceases to meet eligibility requirements.

- Employee who has military benefits through TRICARE
- Employee who has coverage through a Federal Employee Health Benefits Program.
- Employee who has coverage through Medicare.

Ineligible Dependents

The following categories of dependents are considered ineligible for coverage with Sutter Health Plan unless they meet the dependent eligibility requirements:

- A dependent who was previously covered by Sutter Health Plan as a spouse of the subscriber, who is now divorced from the subscriber.
- A child of a subscriber who is not the natural or adoptive parent, step parent, legal guardian, or court ordered custodian, unless covered because they are a child of an eligible domestic partner, a civil union or the same-sex marriage.
- A child after the end of the month in which they turn 26.
- A foreign exchange student.
- A grandparent, parent, grandchild, or other relative.
- A dependent of a qualified dependent.

Valid Waivers

Valid waivers are defined as an:

- Employee who is a dependent through a spouse or parent's health plan.
- Employee who has coverage with another carrier through another employer.
- Employee who has coverage through Covered California.
- Employee's spouse or domestic partner that works for the same employer.
- Employee who has an individual plan through Medi-Cal.

General Terms and Conditions

Deductible and Out-of-Pocket Accumulation Credits

- Members are not credited for any expenses incurred toward satisfying deductibles or out-of-pocket maximums on any medical plan offered through another carrier.
- All deductibles and out-of-pocket maximums reset to zero on the accumulation period start date. No credits will be carried over from the previous accumulation period to the next accumulation period.

Employer Effective and End Date

- The effective date is the first day of the month.
- The end date is the last day of the month.

Mid-year Contract Changes

- Rates are guaranteed for 12 months.
- An employer can terminate or renew its policy prior to the 12-month period.
- Extensions of 12-month rates are subject to Underwriting approval.

Employer Location Requirements

- The employer must maintain a valid business license or appropriate state filing to conduct business in California.
- An employer should be headquartered within the licensed service area. If the employer's business is headquartered outside of the Sutter Health Plan licensed service area, the employer may offer Sutter Health Plan coverage to those eligible employees who live, physically work or reside within the Sutter Health Plan licensed service area.
