By signing this form, you are declaring that the information you have provided is true and complete. You understand that by declining coverage for yourself, you are also declining coverage for your eligible dependent(s). You may only enroll or change your coverage during your employer's annual open enrollment period determined by your employer. However, in some cases, you may qualify to enroll in a special enrollment period due to a qualifying event. For a list of qualifying events, please refer to the Sutter Health Plan Evidence of Coverage and Disclosure Form.
